Lent Courses

- The Tuesday discussion group are starting their Lent course early, on Tuesday 6th Feb, and would be delighted to welcome any newcomers. Each session is stand-alone so please feel free to come when you can, 2.30pm for 3pm every Tuesday, at Dawn Hitchens' house in Beacon. See Dawn or Rev Deb for more info.

- Tony le Fevre will be running a Lent course on Thursdays in the Clink, starting on February 15th at 7pm.

From February there will be a short service at All Saints Church on Tuesday mornings, 9.30am-10am, that will include time for prayer for our churches. Do please join us.

The bread and wine at All Saints this week has been donated by Sheila Gould, in memory of her husband Peter whose anniversary is on February 8th.

Please note the venue for the Saturday night Youth Group has changed: it is now in Camborne Church Hall NOT the Clink.

The time will also be changing shortly:

The last Saturday meeting will be on 17th February, and the Youth Group will instead meet on Thursdays, 7-9pm, starting on Thursday 22nd February.

Cafe church

at All Saints, Tuckingmill

An informal service for the second Sunday of the month; breakfast from 9.30am, service at 10am.

Do come and support us and invite friends and family to join us!

MMF Meetings

As some of you know from Synod, the Diocese will be introducing a new methodology for calculating MMF for 2019. The Deanery is therefore holding two special meetings at St Mary's Portreath on Tuesday 13th February and Wednesday 21st February at 7.30pm. The first meeting will also be attended by a Diocesan representative and the second meeting (for those who cannot attend the first one) will be led by the Deanery.

This will be of vital interest to Parish Treasurers, Clergy and any Deanery members who particularly want to be involved in this consultation. We hope representatives from every Parish will be able to attend one of these events.
